Client-Specific Notes

- The client has a strong profile with a high projected CRS score and good IELTS scores.
- The client is recommended to pursue the EEP option as a first choice due to the high projected CRS score.
- If the client is unable to obtain a high CRS score in the Express Entry draws, the PNP option can be considered as an alternative.

- The client is advised to focus on improving her speaking and writing skills to achieve the required minimum IELTS scores.
- The client is also advised to start preparing her documents for the application process, including educational credentials, employment letters, and language test results.
